DUNAMAGGAN LADIED GAELIC FOOTBALL: 2fm Roadcaster and TV3 visit – Wednesday 1st July was a very eventful day in Dunnamaggin with not one, but two celebrity visits to the village. The morning began with the arrival of Ryan Tubridy who broadcast live from the 2fm Roadcaster pitch side. This was followed in the early afternoon with Anna Daly of TV3 fame filming a segment on the Ladies Gaelic Football Association, to be aired on Ireland AM on Thursday July 9th.

[illegible]

The broadcasts were as a result of the successful Gaelic4Girls initiative and ensuing remarkable growth of the club in such a short period of time. The Gaelic4Girls programme is rolled out by the Ladies Gaelic Football Association who receives funding from the National Lottery Good Causes. While Dunnamaggin LGFC has not received any direct funding from the National Lottery, the club has benefited indirectly through the Gaelic4Girls programme. Dunnamaggin LGFC was chosen as one of the 50 or so clubs from Ireland and Britain to partake in the Gaelic4Girls initiative. The programme is used as a foundation block for new clubs and clubs trying to attract new members and culminates on Monday (6th) when almost 1000 girls will descend on Croke Park to partake in the Gaelic4Girls National Blitz. Many thanks to all those who worked so hard to make the day such a success.

Croke Park – All eyes turn to Croke Park on Monday 6th when 40 club members will participate in the Gaelic4Girls National Blitz. 2 busloads of players and supporters will leave the pitch in Dunnamaggin at 6.45am for arrival in Croke Park at 9.15am. The girls will play 4 matches which will finish at 1pm. The buses will stop in Corkagh Park for a picnic on the way home and estimated time of arrival back in Dunnamaggin is 5 to 5.30pm. Hopefully the sun will be shining!!
