PAST PUPILS OF ST. KIERAN'S COLLEGE: St. Kieran's has recently formed an Alumni Association for past pupils and would like to connect past pupils and keep them up-to-date with ongoing activities at the College and with various events for past pupils. It would, therefore, greatly appreciate it if you help by doing two things:
1) Can you log onto www.stkieranscollege.ie/past-pupils and update your details for our database.
2) Can you pass on this email to anyone you know who is also a past pupil of St Kieran's. The more people you forward this to the greater the amount of people we can add to the database.

The Official Opening of the Alumni Association will take place on the weekend of June 30th / July 1st 2017 and the College would like to forward details of this event, as it takes shape, to as many past pupils as possible.

The Kilkenny Federation for Victim Assistance have recently changed its number and you can now contact us anytime on Freephone 1800 277 477. The body of volunteers offer practical and emotional support to all victims of crime and traumatic incidents in Kilkenny and surrounding areas. It offer a free and confidential service. All its volunteers have been fully trained and garda vetted. If you wish to get in touch with it where it can arrange for two volunteers to visit you in your home in a comfortable environment, then please call on Freephone 1800 277 477.
