FREE TRANSPORT: The Irish Cancer Society operates a free transport service for patients attending hospital for chemotherapy treatment. Volunteer Drivers pick the patient up at the door of their home, drop them at the hospital door, then when finished treatment, will pick them up and drop them home. Volunteer expenses are paid. Patients wishing to avail of this free service should contact their healthcare professional, visit the Society's website at irishcancer.ie or contact the Irish Cancer Society for more information on 01 2310 522.

Over 50s Pilates class in the Blessed Edmund Rice centre (Callan) 9:30-10:30 starting January 29th. One of the best things about the Pilates method is that it works so well for a wide range of people. All exercises are developed with modifications that can make a workout safe and challenging for a person at any level. It is also a great way to get involved in the local community.

HISTORY OF DUNAMAGGAN meeting will take place on Tuesday 6th February at 8.00 p.m. in St. Eoghan's Centre, Kilmoganny. All are welcome to attend.

KELLS HISTORICAL GROUP: A local group is considering starting a Kells Historical Discussion Group where people with an interest in the History of Kells could share their stories or just listen to others. There is no commitment to share information and anyone interested can attend. The group would meet for maybe one hour once a month in Mullins Mill, if you are interest in attending just let us know. Maybe you just want to come along and listen to the stories others share this is perfect too, if we get sufficient interest we will get the ball rolling. There would be little cost involved, maybe a donation towards the heating of the Mill for the evening. If not interested yourself please ask others particularly those who may not see any notices, if interested just text your name to Liam O'Sullivan at 087-9101571 or look up Historic Kells on Facebook for more info.
